

Board of Zoning Appeals – Alternate and Member- The Board of Zoning Appeals consists of five members recommended by the Board of Supervisors for appointment by the Circuit Court to serve for a 5-year term. The Board meets to hear and decide appeals of decisions rendered by zoning administrators, interpret unclear provisions in the zoning ordinance and decide on applications by landowners to permit buildings or land uses which vary from the zoning regulations. Members must be residents of Greene County and qualified by knowledge and experience to make objective, fact-based decisions guided by zoning law. Professional Board of Zoning Appeals training is provided. Meetings are held the fourth Wednesday of the month at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room at the County Administration Building. <https://www.greencountyva.gov/government/depts/planning-zoning/bza-meetings>

Economic Development Authority – The Economic Development Authority has a board of seven directors appointed for four-year terms by the Greene County Board of Supervisors. The purpose of the EDA is to promote business development in Greene County consistent with the Comprehensive Plan, the direction of the Board of Supervisors and the intent of the legislation of the Commonwealth of Virginia. The EDA and the Director of Economic Development and Tourism work together to reach the County's economic development goals. The EDA Board meets the third Tuesday in January, March, May, July, September at 6:30 p.m. at the Stanardsville Town Hall located at 19 Celt Road, Stanardsville, VA. For additional information please contact Alan Yost, Director of Economic Development and Tourism, at 434-985-6663.

Equalization Board - Appointees to this 3-member board are recommended by the Board of Supervisors and appointed by the Circuit Court. All members must be residents of Greene County and at least one (1) member shall be commercial or residential real estate appraisers or other real estate professionals, builders, developers or legal or financial professionals. The Board shall hear complaints that real property is assessed at more than fair market value; shall hear and give consideration o such complaints; shall adjust and equalize such assessments and shall consider all applications by property owners or lessees for relief following the general reassessment of real estate. The Board sits an average of two to four days per session. Training is required.

Jefferson Area Board for Aging – Board of Directors - Jefferson Area Board for Aging (JABA) was established in 1975 and serves the needs of the aging community in the counties of Albemarle, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa and Nelson, and the City of Charlottesville. The JABA Board of Directors is responsible for developing a comprehensive system for services for all persons 60 and over. Greene County appoints two members to the Board of Directors for two-year terms. Meetings are held the fourth Monday of every other month at noon. For additional information please visit: www.jabacares.org

Piedmont Workforce Network Board - PWN has the central role of providing leadership and direction on local strategic workforce issues, identifying local needs and developing strategies to address those needs. PWN has a total of 34 member and includes Counties of Culpeper, Fauquier, Madison, Orange, Rappahannock, Albemarle, Fluvanna, Greene, Louisa, and Nelson and the City of Charlottesville. The Piedmont Workforce Network is responsible for the oversight and administration of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act's (WIOA) Adult, Dislocated Worker and Youth programs in the central Virginia region. These programs are designed to help job seekers access employment, education, training, and support services to succeed in the labor market and to match employers with the skilled workers they need to compete in the global economy. The Board meets on a quarterly basis at 3:00 p.m. For additional information, please visit: www.centralvirginia.org/piedmont-workforce-network/ or www.centralvirginia.org/piedmont-workforce-network/cleo-board-information/

Rivanna River Basin Commission – The RRBC provides guidance for the stewardship of water and natural resources of the Rivanna River Basin and promotes activities by local, state, and federal governments, and by individuals, that foster resource stewardship for the environmental and economic health of the Basin. The RRBC was formed in 2007, as a result of enabling legislation passed by the General Assembly in 2004. Participating jurisdictions include Albemarle County, Fluvanna County, Greene County, and the City of Charlottesville. The Commission is comprised of two elected officials from each of the participating jurisdictions, one citizen appointee from each of the jurisdictions, and one representative each from the Culpeper and Thomas Jefferson Soil and Water Conservation Districts. For additional information on the RRBC, please visit their website at: <http://www.rivannariverbasin.org/index.php>